APPLICATION FOR GRANT

By

(Name of Requesting Party)

You must complete and execute this application before any consideration for a grant is given by the Farmington/Farmington Hills Foundation for Youth and Families (the Foundation). Upon submission, this application (together with all attachments and information the Foundation later secures from any source) shall become the exclusive property of the Foundation and will not be returned to you for any reason.

This application seeks only preliminary information. No representations, promises and/or warranties are made by the Foundation, its Trustees, or its agents that you will either be given a grant or that any special consideration will be given to this application.

For purposes of this application, the terms “you,” “your” or “Requesting Party” shall mean the entity and/or persons identified above who is/are requesting a grant from the Foundation. The term “Foundation” shall mean the Farmington Hills/Farmington Foundation for Youth and Families, as well as its Trustees, agents, directors and assigns.

Please complete this application and attach additional pages as necessary.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

By executing and submitting this application, you also acknowledge, understand and agree to the following:

1. That the Foundation is under no obligation to consider this request.
2. That the Foundation is not obligated to give you or anyone an explanation regarding denial of this application.
3. That the information provided in this application is true and accurate.
4. That you authorize the Foundation, its Trustees and/or its agents, to verify any information you now or later provide.
5. That the Foundation will not consider your application unless you comply with its criteria for evaluation of applications (which criteria change from time to time).
6. That you are making the following representations to the Foundation and the Foundation is relying upon them:
 - a. That you are in compliance with all laws, governmental regulations, licensing requirements and other obligations regarding your expressed intended use of the grant; and
 - b. That you have the right to use any name, address, trademark, service mark, and/or copyright associated with your expressed intended use of the grant.
7. That failure by the Foundation to require your performance to these terms or to terms associated with any given grant shall in no way affect its rights to require your performance at any later time.
8. That you (not only for yourself but also for your owners, partners, shareholders, officers, directors, representatives, agents, servants, employees, program participants, affiliates and attorneys) agree to indemnify the Foundation (as well as its Trustees and all their respective heirs, executors, predecessors, successors and assigns) from any and all actions, claims, suits demand, causes for action, debts, liabilities, damages, costs and expenses, whether in equity or law, whether for personal injury or other, whether known or unknown, or any nature whatsoever, that either you, any program participant or any other person or entity associated with the proposed use of the requested grant may have against the Foundation.

9. That, if the Foundation gives you a grant and you fail to perform or undertake the proposed use identified, you will not only immediately return the grant to the Foundation, but you will also be responsible for all costs, expenses and attorneys fees incurred by the Foundation in recovering it.
10. That the Foundation does not make any representations that information supplied by you or further secured by it will be held confidential. The Foundation may, in its sole discretion, disseminate such information to any person or entity, including the media.
11. That no promises have been made to you and that this application alone contains the entire agreement between you and the Foundation. It supersedes any and all prior representations and/or agreements.
12. That you have had the opportunity to review this application with your own counsel and are submitting it freely, voluntarily and without any undue physical or economic duress.
